DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. Claims 77-78 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yoshida.

Re claims 77-78, Yoshida discloses (column 6, lines 43-54) an image reading device in which a detachably mounted interchangeable element has been supplied with individual white balance data representing the red and blue levels of a signal produced by the image reading device. This data is inherently written to the element during manufacture, and thus specifically identified with the device (i.e. it is readable as "identification information"). This data is read out from the detachably mounted interchangeable element and used to set a white balance reference correction.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 41, 44, 60-76, & 79-80 are allowed.
4. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Re claim 41 (and dependent claims 73-74), the substitution of a print head for an image reading device in conjunction with a system for retrieving a set reference data associated with the identification of the image reading device is not taught or suggested by the art of record.

Re claim 44, 79, & 80 (and dependent claims 75-76), the art of record does not teach or suggest the claimed elements of reference data storage in conjunction with the recited associated identification information and temperature measurement and storage.

Re claims 60, 65, 69, 70, 71, & 72 (and dependent claims 61-64, & 66-68), the art of record does not teach or suggest the claimed elements of determining the recited reference data correspondence and updating reference data in response to that determination.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 8/16/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues (Remarks filed 8/16/04: page 13, lines 8-23) that the art of record (Yoshida) fails to disclose:

"....an image processing apparatus having a carriage on which an image reading device for reading an image of original is detachably mounted or a print head unit for forming an image on a printing medium is detachably mounted in stead of the image reading device...." [emphasis added]

Art Unit: 2624

However, the claim language as written is met if either of the alternatives separated by "or" is met. In the present case, as described above, the former alternative is readable upon the Yoshida reference.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
